WHEREAS, the annual Compassion Games competition promotes kindness and community service in an engaging way; and
WHEREAS, every year thousands participate in “coopetition” to challenge and support each other to advocate for worthy causes and better their neighborhoods and the world; and
WHEREAS, over the past four years Compassion Games International have mobilized more than 400,000 volunteers to serve over 1,500,000 people in 34 countries; and
WHEREAS, the World Trade Center Seattle has over 60 nonprofit members and is hosting the Compassion Games Kick-Off to mobilize volunteers across the region; and
WHEREAS, I encourage everyone in Seattle to get involved and help prove ourselves the most compassionate city in America, both during the Compassion Games and by supporting our local nonprofits throughout the year;

NOW, THEREFORE I, EDWARD B. MURRAY, MAYOR OF SEATTLE, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM JULY 27, 2016 TO BE

Compassion Day Seattle

Mayor Edward B. Murray
City of Seattle